

Pretty Girls Make Graves

Audrey Horne

I, I am reluctant to pronounce your name
Here stuck in these waters I still fight your wave
I, I have been buried by your selfish game
I, I won't forget the way you pinned me down

With or without you I am still right here
Under your wave
Without you I am nothing
I'm all pouring rain
I set my mind at ease

Yeah, a pretty girl will always leave a grave
So now tell me what's a boy supposed to do

With or without you I am still right here
Under your wave
Without you I am nothing
I'm all pouring rain
I set my mind at ease

When all is said and done
You cant go back again
And every time you try to leave
You end up here again

With or without you I am still right here
Under your wave
Without you I am nothing
I'm all pouring rain
I set my mind at ease

With or without you I am still right here
Under your wave
Without you I am nothing
I'm all pouring rain
I set my mind at ease
