

Show and Tell

Audrey Horne

Down in a hole
I found a damn good believer
He said: "Listen up son,
You see, my head's a reciever"

"Stay off the path,
make sure you're under the radar.
They know where you live,
You're up against your redeemer"

Well they stole it all away
They know you well
And you gave them all you had
For show and tell

Someday you're gonna give yourself away
Someday you're gonna give yourself ...

Save me a line
I need a quick reliever
All of your lies
You made me a believer
Cold and alone
Well I've been sold down the river
You promised us gold
It is bout time you delivered

Well they stole it all away
They know you well
And you gave them all you had
To get your knife away

Well they stole it all away
They know you well
And you gave them all you had
For show and tell

Well you gave it all away
Well you gave it all away
For show and tell

Someday you're gonna give yourself
Someday you're gonna Someday
Someday you're gonna give yourself away
