Down in a hole
I found a damn good believer
He said: "Listen up son,
You see, my head's a reciever"

"Stay off the path, make sure you're under the radar. They know where you live, You're up against your redeemer"

Well they stole it all away They know you well And you gave them all you had For show and tell

Someday you're gonna give yourself away Someday you're gonna give yourself ...

Save me a line
I need a quick reliever
All of your lies
You made me a believer
Cold and alone
Well I've been sold down the river
You promised us gold
It is bout time you delivered

Well they stole it all away They know you well And you gave them all you had To get your knife away

Well they stole it all away They know you well And you gave them all you had For show and tell

Well you gave it all away Well you gave it all away For show and tell

Someday you're gonna give yourself Someday you're gonna Someday Someday you're gonna give yourself away
