

Down Right Now

August Alsina

12's in the back, beating down the block
When I ride by, all the bitches flock
Because It's not my fault, your bitch steady choosing
Dog it ain't because I'm winning
It's all because you're losing
Seen your girl the other day
Heard she fuck with real niggas
Her ex locked up, heard he used to kill niggas
Then she met you 'cause you pay her bills nigga
Till she met me, now she tell you chill nigga

[Hook:]

Hit me on the phone to tell me she alone
Begging me to slide through to give her what she wants
When I pull up to the crib ain't even got to wait
She be ready every minute of the day saying
We can go down right now right here right now
Run it we can get it poppin right now
Run it we can get it poppin right now
I just took a couple shots so I'm on it right now
I just took a couple hits so I'm faded right now
Shawty tellin me that I should break her off right now
And I'm with it 'cause her ass so soft right now

I ain't her boyfriend, I ain't her husband
That's what you is my mistake that's what you was
My nigga you a 'has been', I'm young and thugging
She hit me up every time she down to fuck
Best believe it I beat it up
When I take her down she be wanting it again
That's her right now blowin up my phone
Ring, ring I'm a knock her out
Ding, ding she out for the count
Got her face down and her ass up
And I'm out the door my tents up
And my bass low trying to rest up
'Cause I know that she gon'
