

Fault Line

August Burns Red

We all hurt
We all need
We all cry
We all bleed
Their dreams, their desires, they consume me
The good, the bad, the ugly aren't too much to take
I've been put in this position, but now I can't bear to leave
Stand here with me
Together we'll get through this
Stand here with me, and we'll wash it all away
Without you I'm nothing
Yes, I've come to understand this
Without you I'm worthless
Yes, I've come to understand this
I've been handed my life by you
The least I can do is listen
Pull me aside, and step inside
I'll listen to your horror stories
Let this song be your motivation
Let your life be your inspiration
You can't hide your fear in this chorus forever
If I could do more I promise you I would, but this is your time now
Whisper your grief
Scream your sorrow
Proclaim your love
Just don't call me your hero
Tell me your stories
I'll lend you my ears
Tell me your horror
I'll make it disappear
I'm absorbing the impact of the young at heart
We all hurt
We all need
We all cry, and we all bleed.
We have hope.
