

Say You Want Me

Augustana

My lifeless shaky hands hold onto loves demands
I pray you'd understand, I'm just as scared as you
My hopeless hollow eyes, as empty as the night
I drained your blood and tried trading old lies for truth

Days go slowly, nights feel lonely
Touch me, hold me
You could save me if you'd only

Say you want me, say you want me
I just can't watch you go
Say you love me, love me only
Wait until you know

My shattered broken half is filled with broken glass
From every time I asked too much of you, I knew
One day, things would change
And one day, we could say that
One day, this storm would pass, pass over me and you

Days go slowly...

Say you want me, say you want me
I just can't watch you go
Say you love me, love me only
Wait until you know
You can run and be free, if that's what you need
But if you turn back around, would you run to me and
Say you want me, say you want me...
