

Breathe

Aura Dione

I'm walking to the wildest dream,
I'm walking to the world of fashion.
So many people lost in space of who they are and where they're going ?

I want to look into your eyes,
behind the fear, beyond the risk.
Memories don't live inside,
stars come light, maybe to save you...

Breathe, breathe another way,
breathing to the day
Won't you show me who you really are ?
Breathe, breathe another way,
breathing to the day.
I can feel you so much better now.

How can we be so far away from what we were and what we've becoming and all the riches of the past.
I feel the change and can't define it.

I want to look into your eyes,
behind the fear, beyond the risk.
Memories don't live inside,
stars come light, maybe to save you...

Breathe, breathe another way,
breathing to the day.
Won't you show me who you really are ?
Breathe, breathe another way,
breathing to the day.
I can feel you so much better now.
