

You Are The Reason

Aura Dione

I am walking up the stairs
To a room with empty chairs
And I wonder who sits on top of you now
See the truth became your goal
To wonder what's left and untold
Know the meaning of what was always deep in me
And the corner of the night
Seems more dangerous then bright
Am I losing as I'm fighting from no one baby

You are the reason, I'm a bird
The key is in the door
I am crying on your floor
The waste of love once upon a time,
The window leads me on
I'll be the angel of you dawn
I am flying but I'm flying from no one, baby

You are the reason, I'm a bird
You are the reason
I'm a bird..
