Pestilent Streams

Aura Noir

From the nest of tongues
Out of the salivary glands
Pestilent waters are streaming again
And the stream becomes a flood
That swamp and castrates the fields
Where you cultivate and reap
Your deliverance and affluence

Adorned, the night By the pestilent stream

Twin darkness
They carry you
On no other path
No other path than that of death

See the tongues of the dark flicker See the pestilent stream The weakening gleam of your eyes reflect In the torrents of the storm

Stare into the void Stare onto the once black soil The glare of your eyes infect By the torrents, the torrents of the streams

Twin darkness
They carry you
On no other path
No other path than that of death
