

Right Wing Warfare

Aus-Rotten

We couldn't wait until judgement day
So we'll tell you now what god has to say
We're only here to give god's plan a nudge
And declare ourselves as your rightful judge
Because we're the enlightened ones who hear his words
And we'll make sure you get what you deserve
So if your lifestyle has left god's will defied
Then you too will be crucified
The amount of oppression committed in the name of god above
Seems hypocritical for an institution that claims to cherish love
But the leaders of the Christian right seem eager to create
A national hysteria based on ignorance and hate
Claiming to be the voice for whatever god has to say Condemning same-sex marriages and advancement for gays
A return to traditional values that help hold women back
While portraying themselves as the minorities whose lifestyle is under attack
It's time to let god's work commence
Oppressing others in his own defense
His superiority makes his tyranny just So our vengeful god will do what he must
To protect you from eternal damnation
Or even worse: gay liberation
All the oppression he puts his children through
Is only done out of his love for you
Under the guise of saving themselves from religious persecution
Is one way of recruiting followers into this bigoted institution
Convincing Christian soldiers that they are fighting the good fight
Helps them feel more comfortable with depriving others human rights
Redefining their image to protect a reasonable front
Keeping the focus from their hidden agenda of what they really want Absolute political power and a Christian hierarchy
And the salvation of your soul that can be saved with lots of money
When god asks for your money you must abide
So just sit back and let faith provide
Because with all of your money that Jesus saves
He can fill the holes in the path he paves
Where you hope to find your soul's salvation
But it won't live up to your expectations
Your blind devotion has been their best investment
Now prepare your soul for disappointment
As a messenger of Christ I call on all of God's soldiers to rise up and take a stand.
These are troubled times and we find ourselves engulfed in spiritual warfare submerged in a desperate battle between good and evil. Too many people have been left astray and brainwashed by the anti-biblical feminist movement and the gay agenda. These heathens are responsible for the decline in the moral fabric of our society. It's our Christian duty to rid the world of all this vileness.
To recognize these sinners as human beings would be an abomination in the eyes of god.
I don't need god, I don't need saved, and I won't be enslaved
Jesus enslaves
Christians surrender and submit to god's will
Those in the womb you protect, those on death row you kill

An eye for an eye, a tooth for the truth
Is this the message instilled in their youth
Or is it protesting funerals to voice their concerns
Fighting his battles until Christ returns
If his messengers are these bigoted men
Than it seems that god is showing bad judgement again
What is it going to take before your agenda is appeased,
An entire nation of worshippers dying on their knees?
And everlasting pain and suffering for those who don't repent
Is that the compassionate, loving god you claim to represent?
Looking for moral leadership from these bigoted hypocrites
Is like hoping for a fortune by polishing your shit
Fuck the Christian Coalition and their fascist polictis
There's nothing wrong with these people that a hungry lion couldn't fix
