

I am free!
I can't believe chains are broke
Tradition we delete
A human in the fortress
I wiggle to the bed

If only it were true, if only
If only it were true, if only

Careful now!
Tails will be caught if you keep on your toes
'Cause I am a monster, and
I'm looking for a break

If only it were true, if only
If only it were true, if only
If only it were true, if only
If only it were true, if only

There's no names here
Come follow me
Together we are drastic in our voyage to proceed

If only it were true, if only
If only it were true, if only
And away!
