Young And Gay

The dark night, ooh ooh It caught me, ooh ooh Reading my palm, this thing that I will know Beating in my test, the fool that you will know

In my hand In my hand In my hand The fool that you will know

These wings I spread ooh ooh It lead my face towards ooh What isn't for the search that I respect Amongst the village where the war is ever left

In my hand In my hand In my hand The fool that you will know
