

The New Pollution

Authority Zero

Get ready!

There's something in the air that we've been breathing
On an all sense, in a sense deceiving
Cold to the touch, no burning feeling
Or maybe it's just me lit up again
Gas mask gear to keep plugging away
A different frequency, what have you got to say?
State your name and make a case
Give it up to the last place in this race

I just can't see this through
What they've done to you

Here we are, here we are with the new pollution
Bask yourself in the new solution
Here we are, here we are, it's the new solution
Bathe yourself in the new pollution
Here we are, here we are, the new pollution
Bask yourself in the new solution
Here we are, here we are, the new solution
Bask yourself, just try and run astray

Calling all chords, calling all artist relations
Production's down, guess who gets to replace them?
Hit you while try the green back express
See the top ten ways to survive the test
A chance to move as a cord in tight
To fall in love with the new way of life
It's my new plans and they're so inviting
Turncoat craftsman to make it exciting

I just can't say this is okay
Turn your back on you anyway

Here we are, here we are with the new pollution
Bask yourself in the new solution
Here we are, here we are, it's the new solution
Bathe yourself in the new pollution
Here we are, here we are, the new pollution
Bask yourself in the new solution
Here we are, here we are, the new solution
Bask yourself, just try and run astray

We are the cries that are filled up on your airwaves
We are the hands that will set you free
We are the times that are taking over
We are the face of the enemy

I just can't see this through
What they've done to you
Let's go!

Here we are, here we are with the new pollution
Bask yourself in the new solution
Here we are, here we are, it's the new solution
Bathe yourself in the new pollution

Here we are, here we are, the new pollution
Bask yourself in the new solution
Here we are, here we are, the new solution
Bask yourself, just try and run astray.
