

Butterflies

Automatic Loveletter

Here I go, I'm gonna start an anthem,
For all my girls who went and blew their chances,
And now they suck on a cigarette,

I was bored, I got a little distracted,
To add it up, I got a little subtracted from you,
Now this bottle lays empty on the carpet where you slept,

Gonna cry to the bottom of my heart,
I never thought, I never thought it'd be so hard,
I'm freaking out but I don't really care,
You're some place else, and I'm still here,

'Cause I believe in butterflies,
I believe I told some lies,
I'm holding on to all I had,
I'm saying I'm sorry boy, I was bad,

So kiss me on the tip of my naked eye,
Don't really wanna, really wanna say goodbye,
I'll go to hell some other day,
Trust me, baby, it'll be okay,

My thumb was on your head,
I felt like a goddess,
But the truth is I was so fucking heartless,
And you, you call me on all I do,
What have I done,

Gonna bash my head against the mirror,
Close my eyes and cut all my hair off, it's true,
Maybe you'll understand just what I'm going through,

Gonna sing at the top of my sweet lungs,
Come back, come back to where you belong,
I'm freaking out but I don't really care,
You're some place else, and I'm not there,

Well, I believe in butterflies,
I believe I told some lies,
I'm holding on to all I had,
I'm saying I'm sorry boy, I was bad,

So kiss me on the tip of my naked eye,
Don't really wanna, really wanna say goodbye,
I'll go to hell some other day,
But trust me, baby, it'll be okay,

What's yours is mine, what's mine is yours,
Well, can't go back to how we were before,

Well, I believe in butterflies,
I believe I told some lies,
I'm holding on to all I had,
I'm saying sorry boy, I was bad,

So kiss me on the tip of my naked eye,

Don't really wanna, really wanna say goodbye,
I'll go to hell some other day,
But trust me, baby, it'll be okay,

I believe, I believe,

I'm holding on to all I had,
I'm saying sorry boy, I was bad
