

I Notice

Automatic Loveletter

As far as I know you could already be somebody else's honey
But I can't stop looking at you
Supposed to be up here singing about love
When your gaze distracts my every strum
Don't know your name or where you come from
Just notice I notice

I, I look in your eyes and oh
I found that look in your eye
I've realized all that matters

Hey boy

Yeah I'm talking to you
Your messy black hair
And your deep baby blues
I think i'd like the way you'd smell
And the taste of a morning with you
I could be making this up
Cause all I ever wanted was that kind of
No, yeah still looking at me
Fuckin beautifully

I, I look in your eyes and oh
I found that look in your eye
I've realized all that matters
Hey, hey,
Hey

Can't say goodbye
Not letting you go this time
Cause that look in your eye
Oh look in your eye
Never make me cry

I, I look in your eyes and oh
I found that look in your eye
I've realized all that matters
Now, I look in your eyes and oh
I found that look in your eye
I've realized all that matters
Hey, hey
