

To Die For

Automatic Loveletter

Get up it's a minute to midnight
And we've got, the whole world coming after us
So we're running and running, Oh,
And your eyes are the colour of wanting
And my heart is a runaway paper
And our hands seducing them to coincide

And there's something about you
And there's something that you see
We both lay, here broken
Cause we both know that this can't be

And it cuts like a gun
The poison in battle
Sinking straight to the blood
(So put your hands up
This is love, love, get 'em up)
And it awakens your dreams
And kills all the demons
That you thought wouldn't leave
(So put your hands up
This is love, love, get 'em up)
Cause this is love to die from
And to die for

Could this be, oh dare I say it
Oh this could be,
This could be love I've been waiting for
This could be love I've been asking for

From the stars to the gravel
That we used to light up shadows
From the slits to a stinger
Pricking once in my fingertips
Passion for glory
Impossible in this story

And there's something about you
And there's something that you see
We both lay, here broken
Cause we both know that this can't be

And it cuts like a gun
The poison in battle
Sinking straight to the blood
(So put your hands up
This is love, love, get 'em up)
And it awakens your dreams
And kills all the demons
That you thought wouldn't leave
(So put your hands up
This is love, love, get 'em up)
Cause this is love to die from
And to die for

So if the world comes tumbling in
I will be there with you

And if the devil comes to town
I'll be there to protect you

And it cuts like a gun
The poison in battle
Sinking straight to the blood
(So put your hands up
This is love, love, get 'em up)
And it awakens your dreams
And kills all the demons
That you thought wouldn't leave
(So put your hands up
This is love, love, get 'em up)
Cause this is love to die from
And to die for
Well I die for... you
