Automatic Loveletter

Everyone loves you
Can't do anything wrong
They laugh when you laugh
Concerned when you cry
I am wrong you're right
Complete opposites
In this blood related child

Look down on me
Don't give me sympathy
Adversity amplifies your qualities
There's simply nothing wrong with you
You're wonderful
I wish that I was too

I am obviously not co-operating
I am purposely not, oh, wanting to

Cause the view from below
Gives me no hope, you know
Yeah the view from below
Gives me no hope, you know

Never been alone one day in your life
If the tables were to turn,
Transition from black to white
I am insecure and if you don't know this by now
I'm telling you the only way that I know how

Your love, I love to hate myself
Not surprising how I've made my own hell
You keep promises, I break them
You try and I fake it
You're selfless
That makes me selfish, yeah

I am obviously not co-operating
I am purposely not, oh, wanting to

Gives me no hope, you know
Gives me no hope, you know

I'm jealous, oh
I envy everything about you
I made up a lie
I told everyone I didn't need you
After all

I am obviously not co-operating
I am purposely not, oh, wanting to

Gives me no hope, you know

I love you
