So Close Yet So Far

Autumnblaze

Visit yourself and tell me how you feel Always I knew what you meant but now I don't know I see the trembling veil of your soul and tears that never dry. ..never Dry Woe is me - sometimes I can't sleep at all So close - the distance still grows And sickness, our foe, still blows I noticed your fragile thoughts and stars that changed their co lours We sat together so far away...so far away Yesterday I sang a melody of autumn In your hearse we'll rest tonight Tränensaat am Seelengrab Das Leben zerrinnt Ein Tropfen I'm Wind Narbenworte, Bruderpein Ach! Wer errät mein trübes Sein? So close...yet so far...yet so far...
