Fifth Wheel

Tripped all over my friends At once as they were starting to un wind Had a feeling I was losing 'Cause as they moved along I wa s falling far behind I've got a frame full of Good intentions t hat I Left back at home to rot Thought that to stay underground And go streamline I'd be strong Now I know I'm not Everyday's a week now A search for identity The ground below my feet Has g ot the best of me And I'm tired of always changing I'm tired of being seen The pa th is leading homeward bound Only God knows where I've been I got sick of all of my friends at once As they were starting t o unwind Had a feeling I was losing 'Cause as they moved along I was falling far behind I've got a box full of small invention s That I left back at home to rot Thought that to stay undergro und And go streamline I'd be strong Now I know I'm not Many mon ths I've been gone now I've learned from all I've seen Turn aro und and face southward bound This has got the best of me I'll keep looking for an answer Until my eyes have gone blind I 've run myself in circles And made it through this time With on e foot on the platform One foot on the train I'm going back to Richmond To wear that ball and chain
