

Simple Song

Avail

Going over in my head
What seems like everything
Remembering commitments
That nowadays just blend

I don't know where im going
And i don't think that i care
I had my taste wound up misplaced
Bounced off those troubles clear

Did I? Trip myself up again?
Did I? See more than you did? (2x)

Decisions made without regard, returning as regret
I knew they could but thought they would Come crashing with success
They know nothing about me and i really doubt they care
But that's alright cause by myself
I do fine anywhere

Did I? Trip myself up again?
Did I? See more than you did? (2x)

It seems like i shouldn't have pushed it
Hid myself and lost focus for a change
Shouldn't have made myself committed
I got to know that one by now
I'm better off without

Going over in my head
What seems like everything
Remembering commitments
That nowadays just blend

I don't know where im going
And i don't think that i care
I had my taste wound up misplaced
Bounced off those troubles clear

Did I? Trip myself up again?
Did I? See more than you did? (2x)

It seems like i shouldn't have pushed it
Hid myself and lost focus for a change
Shouldn't have made myself committed
I got to know that one by now
I'm better off without (2x)
