

Slowly Over Me

Avalanche City

One day my hand caught onto yours
And one day I rise and focus the world
With your hand and our barefeet on the sand
And the voice in our head that said just to go

So we go and we go where we are we don't know
But I'm ready to start running to race home

Silence, your heart beats slowly over me
Silent, race home
Silence, your heart beats slowly over me
Silent, race home

I know that I'll keep you on with me
And I know that I need more of you please
But with your hand and our barefeet on the sand
And the voice in our head that said just to go

So we know yeah we know where we start where we go
Is unsteady but I'm running the race home

Silence, your heart beats slowly over me
Silent, race home
Silence, your heart beats slowly over me
Silent, race home

Silence, your heart beats slowly over me
Silent, race home
Silence, your heart beats slowly over me
Silent, race home
