

I've had a world of possibilities
Slip through my hands
And prayers that went unanswered
That I couldn't understand
There's a faith that can move mountains
But I never let it move me
I only trust in things that I could see

So much frustration in trying it alone
I've had the revelation I can't make it on my own

Deep in my heart
Deep in my soul
There was always something missing
Now you've got my full attention
I give you my life
Surrender control
I finally learned to listen to the call
I give you my all

There are moments in the journey
Where I wonder where you are
And sometimes I forget
That you live inside my heart
It's then I hear you whisper
"I've been here all along"
And I'm in the hands of mercy where I belong

A silent conversation when you speak to me
It's the sweetest inspiration and all I'll ever need

Deep in my heart
Deep in my soul
There was always something missing
Now you've got my full attention
I give you my life
Surrender control
I finally learned to listen to the call
I give you my all

Every single day in my life I live
Every little thing that I have to give
Lord I freely give it
Lord I freely give it

Every single day in my life I live
Every little thing that I have to give
Lord I freely give it
Lord I freely give it

Deep in my heart
Deep in my soul
There was always something missing
Now you've got my full attention
I give you my life
Surrender control
I finally learned to listen to the call

I give you my all

I give you my everything
All my life I surrender
