

Destined

Avalon

I have questions
You have answers
I have wounds
You heal with love
I am weak and you are mighty
Hungry and you fill me up
This was meant to be
When you created me

[Chorus:]

I was destined to love you
I was bound to adore you
Purpose to need you
Certain to want you
Designed to pursue you with praise
I was destined to love you

You define me with your greatness
I am shaken by mercy's hand
It's your word that gives me meaning
Yours forever, great I am
How can joy be known
It's in you alone

[Chorus]

I am called to worship you
I am called to worship you
I am called to worship you with all my heart

I am called to worship you
I am called to worship you
I am called to worship you with all my heart, with all my heart

[Chorus]
