

Draconian Love

Avantasia

You shed draconian love
You shed draconian...
You shed draconian love
You shed draconian...

Welcome to your way
Seemingly endless as you take your wings
The world through kaleidoscope eyes
Until you unlearn what you keep inside

Those innocent eyes...
Refracting the light for an innocent soul
Till the cold around's not gonna wait its turn
Wait its turn no more

Tell me how should I embrace
Like roses we'll wither on the vine

Why should I bide my time
If it flies away sometime

Where are you now, where are you now
Leaving me down here, lost in the waves
Hey hey hey
When will God explain this draconian love
You shed draconian love, you shed draconian love
Where do I go, where are you now
Selling me love through the fiery rain, angel
When will you explain this draconian love
It's all draconian love, it's all draconian

Infiltrate us with mercy
Bait us with sympathy
Blind us with love
We're lost in the clouds rolling by
And in what some of us read
Into what they feel

Like a grain of nothing
I feel cast in the wind of enthean caprice
Of an unbred cause, of an unborn will whatever that may mean

Tell me how should I embrace
like roses we'll wither on the vine

Tell me why should I bide my time
if it flies away sometime

Where are you now, where are you now
Leaving me down here, lost in the waves
Hey hey hey
When will God explain this draconian love
You shed draconian love, you shed draconian love
Where do I go, where are you now
Selling me love through fiery rain, angel
When will you explain this draconian love

It's all draconian love, it's all draconian

Aspiration and tears, heartache and fears
Draconian love, you shed draconian love
Unrequited love - down on my knees
Draconian love, it's all draconian

Where are you now, where are you now
Leaving me down here, lost in the waves
Will you explain this draconian love

Where are you now, where are you now
Leaving me down here lost in the waves
Hey hey hey
When will God explain this draconian love
You shed draconian love, you shed draconian love
Where do I go, where are you now
Selling me love through fiery rain
Hey hey hey
Will you explain this draconian love
It's all draconian love, it's all draconian

Where are you now, where are you now
Leaving me down here, lost in the waves
When will God explain this draconian love
You shed draconian love, you shed draconian love
Where do I go, where are you now
Selling me love through fiery rain...
