Another star
has fallen without a sound
Another spark has burned out in the cold

Another door to barrens standing open

And who is there to tell me not to give and not to go

How could I know? how could I know? That I'll get lost in space to roam forever

How could I know? how could I see? feeling like lost in space to roam forever

I'm crawling down
The doorway to the badlands
And kicking down

Are you heard: it's to the black and all the damage fading in the oblivion mirror When the demons are calling me, their dragging me away

How could I know?, how could I know?
That I'll get lost in space to roam forever

How could I know?, how could I see? feeling like lost in space to roam forever

Lost in space lost in time Lost in Space Lost in Space

How could I know, how could I know
How could I know, How could I know
That I'll get lost in space to roam for ever

How could I now, how could I see feeling like lost in space to roam forever Forever...
