

Sleepwalking

Avantasia

Wondering barefoot into nowhere
Just another winter's night
And i don't feel gravity anymore
You never lie, never cry
Never talk me out of dreams
And the dream is what remains

Tell me don't you
See what ain't there
When you look in the mirror
You're starving away
Like a candle burning down

Miles away, Miles away
You've been cutting of the rope
Letting go and loosing ground

And I
Wonder who's to blame
As I am
Sleepwalk in the rain
It's my, my
Silent victory over gravity
And I
Sleepwalk in the rain

Winter sky far and wide
Caving in on you and me
Like a brittle wall of the emerald room:
The hall of fame and dying dreams
The love we'd die for: Petrified
I wanna know: Does a frozen river flow

And I
Wonder who's to blame
As I am
Sleepwalk in the rain
It's my, my
And I
Sleepwalk in the rain

And I
Wonder who's to blame
As I am
Sleepwalk in the rain
It's my, my
And I
Sleepwalk in the rain
