Hey - can't you see we're tripping on the wire Waltzing through the candy land of our desires. Press the magic button and behold the world you crave But where's the fun in freedom when it renders you a slave?

Plegde allegiance, no flag, god nation, goddamned The devil dances with the scorned And how the fire keeps us warm

Hey - it goes beyond big brother in the sky
Beyond the threat of martial law, no Horus eye
No one came to cuff you they just handed you the chains.
Blind follow the blind and now the one-eyed man is king

Plegde allegiance, no flag, god nation, goddamned
The devil dances with the scorned
And how the fire keeps us warm
Tunnel vision, no man, damn nation, god damn
Can't see the forest for the trees
Can't heal the wound before we bleed

No form of payment, no pot of gold, will satisfy the debt of wh at he's owed.

Spilling from the houses in a trance the children lined up on the road.

Cursing at the piper as he lured your kids away and led them to the river for what was their final day.

No need for convincing on his pipe he played a song to fool the ${\tt m}$ all.

Fooled them all.

Plegde allegiance, no flag, god nation, goddamned
The devil dances with the scorned
And how the fire keeps us
Tunnel Vision, no man, damn nation, god damn
Can't see the forest for the trees
Can't heal the wound before we bleed
