

Victim

Avenged Sevenfold

House full of roses
A letter on the stairs
A day full of messages for anyone who cares Collage of broken words and stories full of tears
Remembering your life
'cause we wish that you were here

Nothing is harder than to wake up all alone
Realize it's not okay
it's the end of all you know Time keeps passing by but it seems I'm frozen still Scars are left behind but some too deep to feel

And some say this can't be real
And I've lost my power to feel, tonight
We're all just victims of a crime

When all's gone and can't be regained
We can't seem to shelter the pain, inside
We're all just victims of a crime

Some days you'll find me in a place I like to go
Ask questions to myself
'bout the things I'll never know
'cause I need a little more can we even up the score?

And some say this can't be real
And I've lost my power to feel, tonight
We're all just victims of a crime

When all's gone and can't be regained
We can't seem to shelter the pain, inside
We're all just victims of a crime

And nothing lasts forever
For all good days it's true
I'd rather tread it all
For somehow saving you
And must have been the season
That've threw us out of mind
Once i stood so tall
Now I'm searching for a sign

So don't need your salvation
With promises and kind
And all those those speculation

Save it for another time

'Cause we don't need a reason
A reason just to stay
Some just can't be bothered
To stick around another day 4x

Guitar Solo #2 2x

And some say this can't be real
And I've lost my power to feel, tonight
We've all been victims of a crime

When all is gone and can't be regained
We can't seem to shelter the pain, inside (oh)
We've all been victims of a crime

Victims of a crime
Living with this crime

I'm missing you (4x)
