

Our Little Horror Story

Aviators

A voice calls
A cry in the dark
Telling me to crawl into the light
But I won't
The show has just begun
I'm giving one last encore tonight

Five nights left to find you
One last thing to tend to
You'll fear what I can do
But you'll never run
Ghosts warn of my actions
But I'm the main attraction
You'll bring my satisfaction
Our little horror story's just begun
Our little horror story's just begun

I believe
After this final stand
The end will come, but not until you're gone
I'm haunted
A killer in cage
Using my undoing as my pawn

Five nights left to find you
One last thing to tend to
You'll fear what I can do
But you'll never run
Ghosts warn of my actions
But I'm the main attraction
You'll bring my satisfaction
Our little horror story's just begun

These metal gears and parts
Contain my purple heart
They had their sweet revenge
And brought me to an end
Now I'm the monster here
I'll make you disappear
One last show to put on
After tonight you're gone

Five nights left to find you
One last thing to tend to
You'll fear what I can do
But you'll never run
Ghosts warn of my actions
But I'm the main attraction
You'll bring my satisfaction
Our little horror story's just begun

One last thing to tend to
You'll fear what I can do
But you'll never run
