Second Chances

Aviators

I've made some mistakes
I know I went wrong
Wandering from place to place
With nowhere I belong
I may have lied to you all
But I know that, and I'm sorry
All I want to do is come back
Can you ever forgive me?

I'm not great and powerful
Like I said I was
All I needed was a friend
I didn't mean to hurt anyone
No one seemed to care
With their sneering glances
All I ask is for another try
Everypony needs second chances

So lonely I've been travelling
Across all of Equestria
There's nowhere that I fit in They'll call me a fake, and I'll move on
So give me one more chance
I'll show you I'm not who I was
All I ask of you is to let me come back
I'm feeling so lonely because

I'm not great and powerful
Like I said I was
All I needed was a friend
I didn't mean to hurt anyone
No one seemed to care
With their sneering glances
All I ask is for another try
Everypony needs second chances

Another time
Living lies
Hoping that I'd catch the eyes
Different now
Not sure how
Not sure that I'll figure out
Why I'm here
Alone with fear
Wishing there was someone near
I'm so lonely~

I'm not great and powerful
Like I said I was
All I needed was a friend
No one seemed to care
With their sneering glances
All I ask is for another try
