

Wise can fly from the life of the rolling,
why they stay in the back of core?
There's the reason to play game
seek and hide.

What's so special about your own life?
I will never let you by ...
Lonely child on the road to hell ...

Their soul lies in the water
We all wait for a better day.

And I say fight
that no one can buy you
Wait for me on a better side.
Could my thoughts stay clear to you?

... Blood will be spilled again ...
... I will open the door
that have never been opened before ...
And I will entertain you!

There's a million
souls beneath my feet underground,
They will follow every step I take.
Mind of perfect reason is the one that we Take,
For life they had made just for you!
