

Aquarius Dance

Axel Rudi Pell

Silence of the night and a moon that shines so bright, scary moments are fading away

All life, no real future was in sight but i'm on my way

Burning fever runnin' through my veins like screaming horses who will have no chance in the aquarius dance

Breaking of the day and a sun that leads the way a new horizon's here 2 stay all 2gether we can see the other side well i'm on my way
