

(Don't Trust the) Promised Dreams

Axel Rudi Pell

Midnight, the lime is right, take a trip to the dark moonlight silver spoon and needle soon, ya get to hell, without a spell

Don't trust those promised dreams
there's no way out of misery
Don't trust those promised dreams

Loser's child, can't break free, down on your knees under draggon trees Crack or Smack, no turnin' back.
Right or wrong, man you won't have long

Don't trust those promised dreams
Don't trust those promised dreams,
there's no way out - of misery
