

Fighting the Law

Axel Rudi Pell

She's only fifteen and she drives you nuts She's walking down the Lane and you're going insane Her eyes like the sun in the sky, oh they're blinding your heart and your mind
Fighting the law
Fighting the law, you've gotta let go
Fighting the law
Fighting the law, oh no!
She's wild and willing,
but she don't understand a touch of evil, and it's out of your hands she shines like the sun in the sky, oh yeah
she's blinding your heart and your mind
Fighting the law
Fighting the law, you've got to let go /
you've got to escape
Fighting the law
Fighting the law oh no! /
you're caught in a rage

Fighting the law
Fighting the law, you've got to let go /
you've got to escape
Fighting the law
Fighting the law oh no /
you're caught in a rage
