

Land of the Giants

Axel Rudi Pell

Is this a dream or a fantasy come true voices in the night, they are calling me and you Long way to nowhere, in the hot desert sand
from far away,
I can see the promised land
Someone whispers
in the darkness of the night
Shadows on the wall, a flame that's shining bright
In the land of the Giants
In the land of the Giants
Faces in the mirror, lost and can't escape
Like an animal who's lonely, Locked up in a cage riding on the edge, open up the gate See the world of lost horizons time is running late Someone whispers
in the darkness of the night
Shadows on the wall, a star is shining bright
In the land of the Giants
