

Tower of Lies

Axel Rudi Pell

What can you hear? Can you believe it?
Should we remember all the words outta your mouth?
Livin' a lie, no guts, no glory
No sign to surrender, you're the devil in disguise

Expect no mercy
You are responsible
We're looking ahead
On the train to tomorrow

Oh...
Catch your wounded pride
High above
In your tower of lies
Oh...
You're on a never ending ride
In your tower of lies

Is it all true? Drawing conclusions
All of your stories, we're passing in review
A liar's not believed, even when he speaks the truth
You stand convicted, leaving you in loneliness
