

Your Life (Not Close Enough to Paradise)

Axel Rudi Pell

I remember that the rain
Falls down
And it was cold in the Heart of the town,

I'm still searching for the
Meaning of life,
In a world of starry eyes.
I want you back,
Back where you belong,
I never felt love
Growing up so stront.
Can you feel it,
Feel it in your heart
That nothing can
Tear us apart

Your life, your life,
Not close enough
To Paradise
Your life, and your
Heart's still
Cold as ice.

I felt so lonely,
So lonely and cold
With nothing,
Nothing in this world
To hold.

I'd tried to stop cryin',
Cryin' all day
All I want is you to stay
Your life, your life,
Not close enough to Paradise
Your life, and your
Heart's still
Cold as ice.

Your life, love is
On my mind,
But love's so hard to find
Your life we built
A mountain of love.
High enough to touch
The sky above
