

The Show Is Over

Axxis

The show is over
say good bye.
Go on your way
don't ask me why!

OOoooohoo hooohoo

Was like a stranger in your bed
Now you're a stranger in my head
I wanna try to find real love
But what I found was not enough

I don't wanna hear your lies can't stand it anymore
I will live my life without you - on my own
You're not the kind of girl for a love in paradise
It took some time to realize

The show is over - say goodbye
Go on your way - don't ask me why
I wish you joy and happiness
And all the love that we have missed

A pinch of salt in my open wound
That's all you've left , that's all I found
I'm feeling better (feeling so much better) since you've gone
Leave me alone - I'm not the one

You're not the kind of girl for a love in paradise
I took some time to realize

The show is over - say goodbye
Go on your way - don't ask me why
I wish you joy and happiness
And all the love that we have missed

I don't wanna sell my life to anyone like you
Don't wanna waste my life with all the things you do
Don't hang your shit on me 'cos you don't understand
Taking my life for granted doesn't mean it's in your hand

The show is over - say goodbye
Go on your way - don't ask me why
I wish you joy and happiness
