

Real Love

Ayo

Thank you Father for blessing me
I believe in you with all my heart
Today I want to thank you Lord.
For holding the most beautiful blessing in my arms
See, we've met much sooner, than we were supposed to
I was impatient and so were you

Yeah, this must be real love.
This must be real love, this must be real love
Yeah, this must be real love.
This must be real love, this must be real love

My baby love, don't cry
Mama is here to sing you a lullaby
Don't lie awake
Go ahead and close your eyes
For when you'll wake up tomorrow
Mama will be right by your side

Yeah, this must be real love.
This must be real love, this must be real love
Yeah, this must be real love.
This must be real love, this must be real love.
