

Comatose

Ayreon

No need (5x)

No need to feel the pain

No need to feel betrayed

No need to feel inane

No need to feel afraid

Wake me up before I die, hold me close

As I gaze upon to the sky, comatose

No reason to survive, I suppose

Wake us up before we die

No need to feel desire

But I need you with me

No need to feel so small

But I need to feel secure

No need to feel the fire

But I need to feel free

No need to feel at all

But I need to know for sure

Wake me up before I die, hold me close

As I gaze upon the sky, comatose

No reason to survive, I suppose

Wake us up before we die
