Ayreon

"As the devastated Prodigy rushes to school to find the Teacher, he runs into the Girl and the Rival. He explains that he's left home because his Father has been secretly dosing him with a drug."

Now I told you everything
Now there's nothing more to hide
I've got nowhere else to go
Can I stay with you tonight?

After all that you've been through
How could I turn you away?
We were always meant to be
I don't care what people say

Don't you believe it
Don't be a fool
Manipulate you
Is all he wants to do

He will deceive you
You're being used
Don't let him play you
All he wants to do
He wants to be with you

The meds create a perfect world
Patterns, purpose, clarity
How will I ever live without?
What should I do... what's happening to me?

Don't you worry , it's all right
I will keep you safe from harm
Together we can beat this thing
Before the damage goes too far

Don't you believe it
Don't be a fool
Manipulate you
Is all he wants to you

He will deceive you
You're being used
Don't let him play you
All he wants to do
He wants to be with you

Don't you believe it
Don't be a fool
Manipulate you
Is all he wants to do

He will deceive you
You're being used
Don't let him play you
All he wants to do
He wants to be with you
