

St. Edith

Ayria

I saw your shadow in the darkened hall
You walked right over me not knowing of your impending fall
And now they seek out you
They're worshipping your eternal pain
But with technology comes insecurity and a lack of faith

I'm here to calm you down
I'm here to calm you down, but it's over..
it's over..
it's over..
yes it's over

You're in a tragic prison (it's over)
So desperate to get out (it's over)
I hope you find your way out (it's over)
I'm scared you can't exist (it's over)

The worst is over now
You should go to sleep and try not to dream
I'd try to talk to you, but I'm afraid of what you could bring
I know that one woman couldn't change the world, but you've changed this girl
A tortured place to be, I hope that you could find what you need

I'm here to calm you down
I'm here to calm you down, but it's over..
it's over..
it's over..
yes it's over

You're in a tragic prison (it's over)
So desperate to get out (it's over)
I hope you find your way out (it's over)
I'm scared you can't exist (it's over)

And if you're trying to find me, you've found me..
And if you're trying to find me, you've found me..
And if you're trying to find me, you've found me..
And if you're trying to find me, you've found me..
