

Riders Of The Apocalypse

We are calamity
Plague and epidemic
We are intolerance
Drought and famine

We are destruction and havoc
Flood and fire
We are hate and violence
The darkness of your heart

Riders of the apocalypse
Heralds of the coming doomsday
Riders of the apocalypse
War, famine, calamity and death!

We are the desperation that freezes your heart
We are the poison in your circulation
We are the shadow in the corner of your eye
We are the knife in the night that cuts your throat
