

Chasing Time

Azealia Banks

(Damn nigga damn, took a Chance with ya, double d-dipped again)
GO!
You could do your dance
Take a chance with your lover like this, begin!
Say,

I want somebody who can take it apart
Stitch me back together make me into who I wanna be
But all you ever do is sit in the dark
Dealing with the Devil you ain't never ever gonna be mine

'Cause I'm born to dance in the moonlight
I feel like spending my nights alone
I try to give you a little more space to grow
White lies, I don't wanna be around anymore
I'm through giving, I've got to go

Am I Chasing Time?
'Cause I wasted all mine on you (You)
Am I Chasing Time? (Time)
'Cause I wasted all mine on you (You)

Check my watch, I had the future in my pocket
But I lost it when I gave it to you (You)
Tomorrow drops, I had my time right in my locket
But I lost it when I gave it to you (You)

Damn, nigga, damn
Took a chance on you, double d-dipped again
And, scram, nigga, scram
Hit your mans up and tell 'em to get the van
And reminisce again
Bring it back to the cabin in Michigan
But man, mister, please
(Take a bite to your lover cause this the end)

'Cause I'm born to dance in the moonlight
I feel like spending my nights alone
I try to give you a little more space to grow
White lies, I don't wanna be around anymore
I'm through giving, I've got to go

Am I Chasing Time?
Cause I wasted all mine on you (You)
Am I Chasing Time? (Time)
Cause I wasted all mine on you (You)

Check my watch, I had the future in my pocket
But I lost it when I gave it to you (You)
Tomorrow drops, I had my time right in my locket
But I lost it when I gave it to you (You)

Go get lost to the highway, freeway
Weavin' off-course like the wrong-way relay
Need me a boss, you're a constant delay
These the kinda thoughts I've been having for three days

Feel like you're more of a homie
Please, you don't even know me
You think I'm starting new relations
I'm just apart and need my space and
Time to myself, ventilation
No time for you, I lack the patience
And you like, "Girl, how you do that?"
My attitude is bitchy but you already knew that
And since we can't get along
I think we should both move on
(GO!)

'Cause I'm born to dance in the moonlight
I feel like spending my nights alone
I try to give you a little more space to grow
White lies, I don't wanna be around anymore
I'm through giving, I've got to go

Am I Chasing Time?
'Cause I wasted all mine on you (You)
Am I Chasing Time? (Time)
'Cause I wasted all mine on you (You)

Check my watch, I had the future in my pocket
But I lost it when I gave it to you (You)
Tomorrow drops, I had my time right in my locket
But I lost it when I gave it to you (You)
