

Nothing Compares To You

AZIATIX

Baby
Wait a minute
Took one look
Not known
Nothing in this world compares to you oh
A moment then a second
Is all I need for us to fall in love
If we can just fall in love

Let me tell you no one can compete
This universe doesn't deserve to be up in your league
And no one truly knows what beautiful really means
When is more than a miracle just seeing you in my dreams
We both know the you don't need to boast
No need to stand out
The kind that knows when to keep it low key
C'mon

Something I gotta let you know
Baby you're just so beautiful

So amazing
So amazing yeah you are
What I've been looking for
Never seen a star so bright like this before
And I've been searching baby
Trust in me when I say that from here on out till always
Girl in this world there's nothing
I just wanna glimpse of your lovin' tonight
Oh oh
Nothing compares to you
Oh oh
Nothing compares to you
Oh oh
Nothing compares to you
Oh oh hmm
Nothing compares to you

Baby know I mean it
When I say you and me there's Something special here that feels so right
I can't deny that you're mine
Lady the one and only
That makes me wish I now was so in love
If we can just fall in love

Nothing compares to my baby
Truth about it maybe
Smile with style so wild it makes me crazy
If I don't feel you daily
Is all that it make me
Put my life on the line if that's where it takes me
Son who's the star girl
You're the brightest, fliest
Heaven looks up where the sky is

Something I gotta let you know

Baby you're just so beautiful

So amazing

So amazing yeah you are

What I've been looking for
