The Devil's Feet

Azure Ray

When I was a child a story was told About the devil and a girl oh so bold He offered her riches, a fortune of gold And lovers abound

But she lifted her soul She lifted her soul clean oh clean And like the story was told On a dark country road

The same man appeared to me But I reached I reached Through the rain to the devil's feet

Now twenty years later to the place i return Where I scorned the angels For a passion that burned There set in the tree a knot twisted and turned

The face of a creature hell bound So long ago could my mind Have played jokes on me As darkness sets in unavoidable sin

The truth i try not to believe That I reached I reached Through the rain to the devil's feet
