

Ain't Nobody Like My Baby

B.B. King

I'm in love with a real fine woman and she gives me everything
I said I'm in love with a real fine woman and she gives me everything

And it makes me feel so good, just to hear my baby call my name

My baby's sly way of loving, makes me feel so good I could sing
Hey my baby's sly way of loving, makes me feel so good I could sing

I feel just like I'm a millionaire, when I hear my baby call my name

Oh, there ain't nobody like my baby, that's the reason I love her so

Oh, ain't nobody, nobody like my baby, that's the reason I love her so

People, I would even die for her, I want the whole round world to know

When I'm down she'll pick me up, she says, 'Daddy, you can't lose'

Oh, when I'm down, when I'm down, she picks me up, tells me, 'Baby, you can't lose'

When all of my friends forget about me, my baby keeps away all these blues
