

Blind Love

B.B. King

People, I was standing at my window
Tears running all down my cheeks
Yes, standing at my window
Tears running all down my cheeks

Well, I could see the woman I`m loving
Stopping everyone in the world she meets
Well, standing on the corner
Between 35th and Main

Well, standing on the corner, people
Between 35th and Main
Yeah, that`s where a blind man`s seen my woman
People, a dumb man called her name

He said, "Oh, I`m blind
You brought eyesight and made me see"
"Oh, I`m blind
You brought eyesight and made me see"

Yes, and the dumb man asked a question
"Woman, who may your good man be?"
Yes, I`m standing by trembling, people
People, my heart`s laying in my hand

I`m standing by trembling, darling
With my heart`s laying in my hand
Well, I could hear my baby say
"Lord, I ain`t got no man"