

Love Life

B.o.B

Love the way you're livin' baby, never wanna waste your time
Love it when you touch my body, makes me wanna give you mine
It's so wrong, but it feels so right
Cause I love this feeling, and I love this life
Said I love this life, life, yeah

This is craziness, addicted to the pain of love and hate relationship Or can I break I heart or can we argue breakin' shit?
I guess I take the fault for what my occupation is The more the money come the more bizarre the day can get, bizarre the day can get
It cost bread to join the game but even more to escape the shit
I see calculated cowards taking calculated risks
This the art or making music or the art of faking shit?
This the truth, I give these boys the blues this is proof
But it's nothing they can tell me
It's nothing they can do to take my touch away, take my love away
I play to win, backstage
First we say the prayer, then we say amen, bands!

Love the way you're livin' baby, never wanna waste your time
Love it when you touch my body, makes me wanna give you mine
It's so wrong, but it feels so right
Cause I love this feeling, and I love this life
Said I love this life, life
It's so wrong, but it feels so right
Cause I love this feeling, and I love this life

This is craziness, this is craziness money before I make it, never learn to wait for shit Tryna pack a stadium, you tryna catch the latest trends
The line between the good and bad is paper thin
Goodness gracious, I might have enemies in high places
They so famous, but can't keep up with how my mind races
How I'm steppin' on these niggas like I've got my own rep Nigga be or make a You say what's up with me, what's up with you?
It's nothing they could tell me, it's nothing they can do to take my touch away, to take my love away
I play to win, swagger woodstock status, guess that's why they call m e bands, bands!

Love the way you're livin' baby, never wanna waste your time
Love it when you touch my body, makes me wanna give you mine
It's so wrong, but it feels so right
Cause I love this feeling, and I love this life
Said I love this life
Said I love this life
It's so wrong, but it feels so right
Cause I love this feeling, and I love this life
