Feel This Way

Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends

"Like best friends" were the words you said to me Got me wondering to myself how could this be They way we touched. was more than a fantasy Just knew that what we had was more reality My wifey is who I thought you'd be Maybe one day raise a C-H-I-L-D Broke my heart when you didn't wanna be with me And all this time I was a fool in L-O-V-E

Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends

Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends

Beautiful, baby that was you and I Now everyday I got to sit and wonder why The way we kissed, got a feeling deep inside What I'm hearing girl, it has to be a lie How can you, just keep me to the side You never even gave this thing a T-R-Y Don't understand these feelings you try to hide Now all the sudden you been actin f-u-n-n-y (omit)

How could you do this to me You led me to believe you want me Now I cant change how I feel inside Girl tell me why

Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends

Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends

Oh yea Baby You wanted me...You wanted me

Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends

Why, why would you make me feel this way Make me feel like we would never separate Make me feel like you want to be my girl But knowing you only wanted to be friends
